The Four Last Things

Death – Judgement – Hell – Heaven

Fr. Martin von Cochem

We are all going to die! Heaven is our ultimate destination. Sadly not all are bound for Glory. Many well intentioned people are of the belief that Heaven and Glory are automatic rewards for living on earth. The author of this book, Father Martin Von Cochem points out the fallacy of such thinking. He pulls no punches stressing the necessity of living our best lives for God. Sufferings on earth are part of the equation, He describes hell in frightening detail for all who think it is a non issue, We have to work to get a Heavenly reward. We get one chance - no do overs once we die. Father Von Cochem tells us how to get right with God for the rest of our days or else. I think this book has the potential of making you the best person you can be if you heed its advice!
